COUNCILMEN PROMOTE SCHOOL WELFARE

Claudia Lindsey, Kriss Cloning, Sandra Congleton, Robert Heath, Lynda Raby, and Debbie White get into the Christmas spirit by decorating the school Christmas tree.

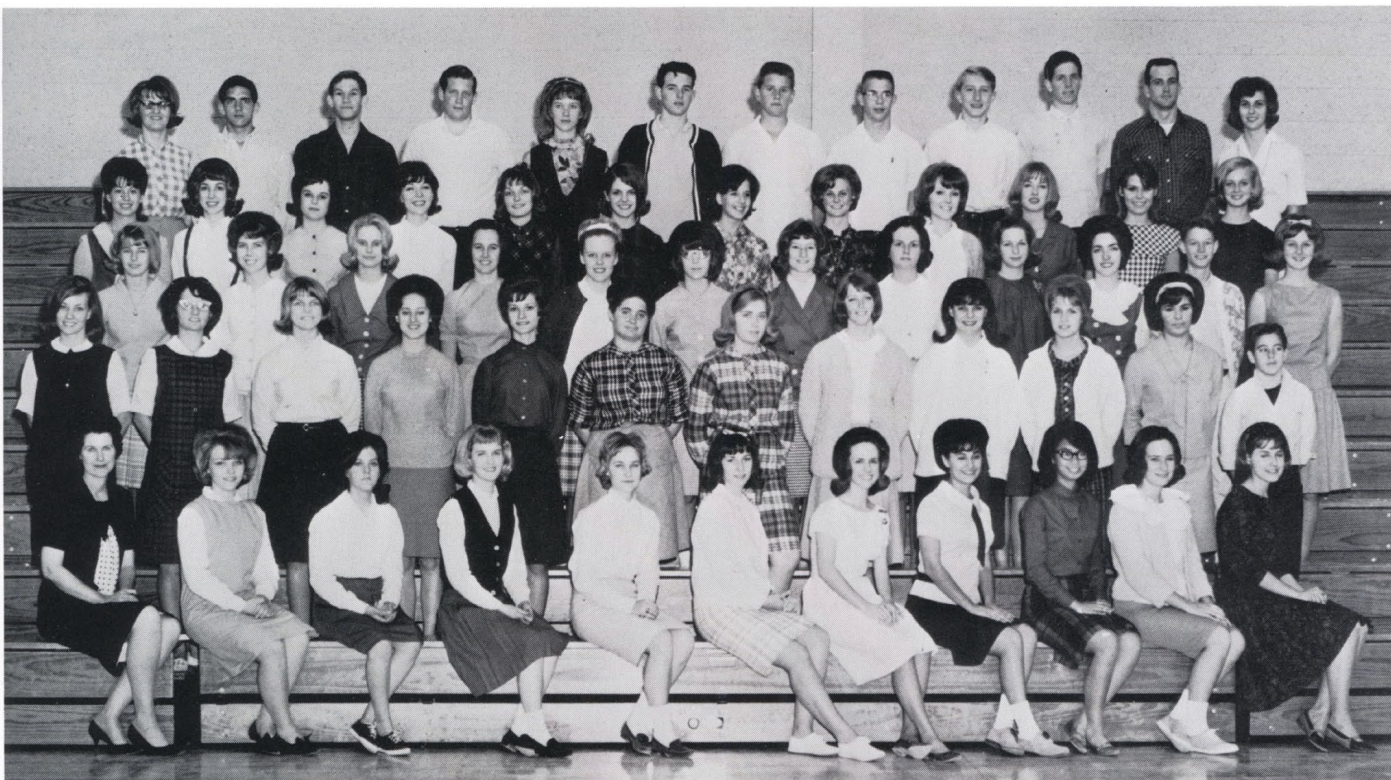

The final assortment of toys is made by Billye Baugh, Neal Wyatt, Candy Carter, Claudia Lindsey, Dale Marsh, and Janice Hill.

Dale Marsh, Sandra Congleton, Mr. Lomax, Kriss Cloning, Candy Carter, and Claudia Lindsey gather around the food and toys collected for needy families.

Student Council members and sponsor include (Top left) Billye Baugh, Neal Wyatt, David Robicheaux, Ben Walker, Debbie Hardy, George Elrod, Dale Marshall, Robert Heath, Jim Back, Ashton Taylor, James McCauley, Zona Hogstrom, Becky Chedister, Linda Ottinger, Lynda Raby, Sandy Hill, Candy Harper, Becky Busch, Karen McLean, Nancy Blankenship, Janice Hill, Ann Dutcher, Cathy McCleery, Penny Boggs, Penny Williams, Kay Adams, Dena Hamilton, Terrie Rhinehart, Betty Brittain, Carla Herman, Carla Matthys, Kay Finney, Suzanne Wilson, Pam Cooper, Ray Kopecky, Bobbie Lewis, Tommie Tucker, Lynda Pitre, Martha Furness, Carolyn Gaster, Marilyn Dubberly, Cyndy Sylva, Pam Morrow, Mary Peckinpaugh, Debbie White, Cynthia Wright, Sandy Bowman, Carl Hennis, Mrs. McKown, Debbie Hosea, Gloria Lawrence, Janelle Anders, Jeannie McNally, Sharon Harrison, Sharron Owens, Claudia Lindsey, Diana Der Bing, Sherry Ashmore, and Madelyn Randall.

The Student Council represents the entire student body in all activities at Sam Rayburn. It is organized to promote better relationships between the faculty and students. It has done this by selling football ribbons, beautifying the school campus, and furnishing the marquee. The Council continually works toward a more efficient and effective student government.

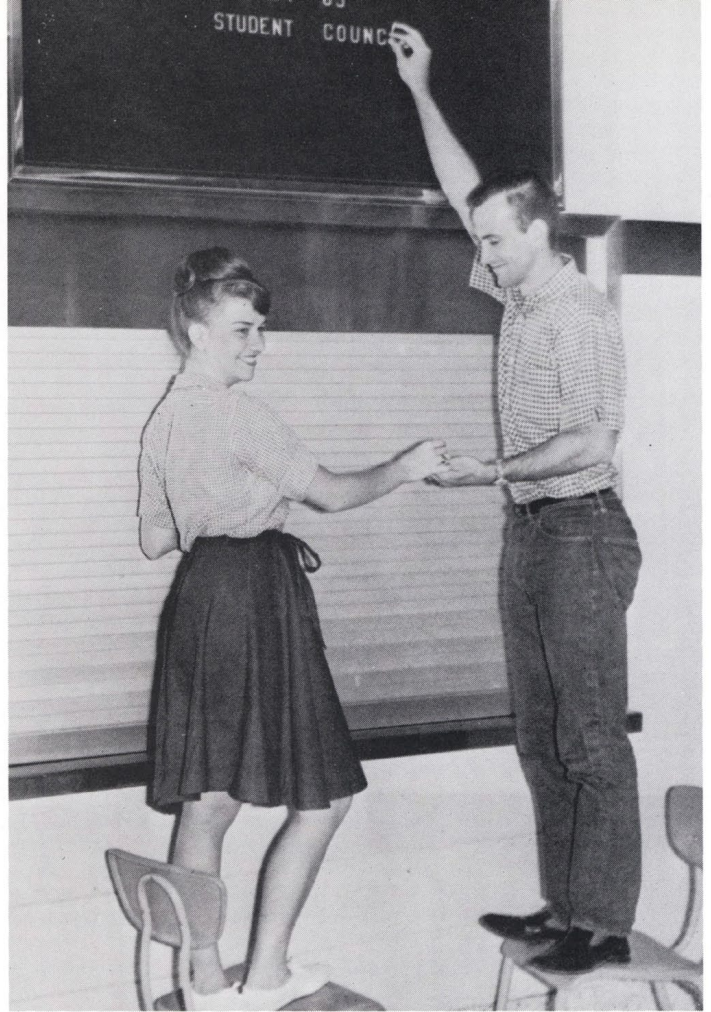

Student Council officers Cathy McCleery, Carla Matthys, Debbie White, Lynda Raby, Kriss Cloninger, Martha Kay Fletcher, and Kay Finney discuss a project with Mrs. McKown, sponsor.

"I can't dig another inch!" comments Jerri Chesney to Carolyn Stanley and Paul Nielsen.

Nancy O'Neal and James McCauley place an announcement on the marquee.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The Sam Rayburn Student Council sponsors the Gulf Coast meeting.

Paula Costolow, Carla Matthys, and Carol Sanford take part in the Christmas project of visiting an old folks' home.

Sandi Brinkman talks with Mr. Ghormley and Mr. Schwartz during Public School Week. Honor Society members served as guides during the week.

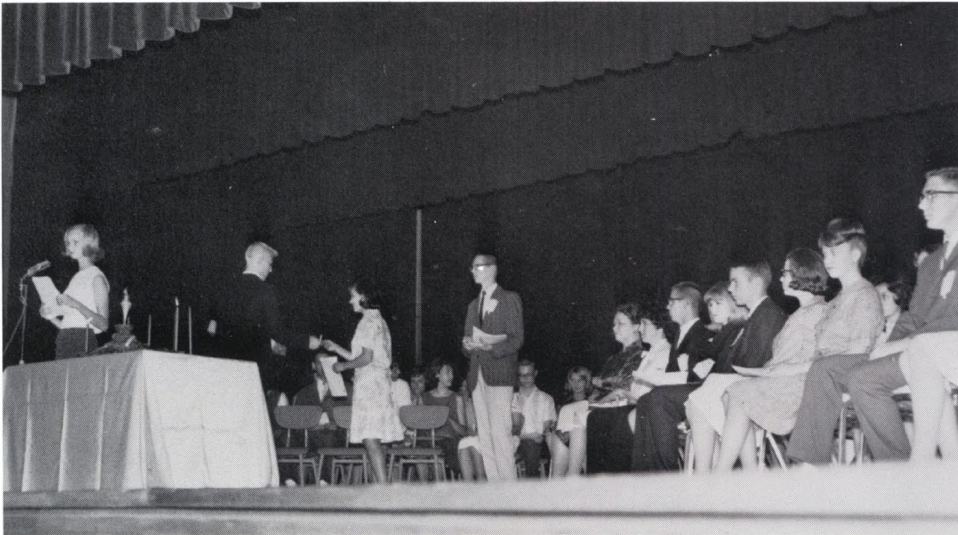

The National Honor Society of Sam Rayburn, composed of transfer members from Pasadena and South Houston, holds as its goals: the heightening of scholarship, the stimulation of service, the promotion of leadership, and the development of character. This year the club has had a fall banquet, aided the library in a book drive, and inducted forty-three new members from the junior and senior classes. Its work includes preparing the orientation for freshmen for the fall of each year.

HONOR STUDENTS RECOGNIZED

Douglas Horbelt pins the Honor Society ribbon on Cathleen Collins, a new member.

Before a tense audience Penny Boggs calls the names of new members.

Karen Adams, Karen Campbell, Carolyn Stanley, and Bill Stoltz are elated to learn that they are new members of the Honor Society.

SPRECHEN SIE DEUTSCH?

Mrs. Marshall, sponsor, enjoys the club Christmas party with Paula Costolow, Nancy Duke, and Nan Progress.

Nan Progress, president, teaches other officers, Linda Marshall, Donna Whitworth, Lynn Tucker, Susan Carte, Elda Waytek, Evelyn Marshall, Dennis Delafield, Paula Costolow, and Maurice Stokes, how to conjugate a German verb.

DRAMA EMPHASIZED

The Thespians Organization is composed of those students who have shown outstanding ability in the field of dramatics. The Thespians must work hard to qualify for membership and then to maintain the high standards of the group. Members work in school dramatic activities to earn points.

Mrs. Satterwhite displays the charter before members Claire Hudson, Daryl Fagala, and Lloyd Wells.

Mike Jones earns points by participating in a school assembly.

Mr. Guinn smiles while Robert Heath wonders why after-game food is so slow a'coming.

"I said, 'Wake up'—not 'Break up', " sighs Drum Major Robert Heath.

FOOTBALL GAMES

Ellen Lundgren, Douglas Varga, Chris Scogin and Sherry Ashby enjoy the band Christmas party.

Band officers are Bruce Moses, Ronnie Lessner, Robert Heath, Chris Scogin, R. C. Lumpkin, Brad Williams, Joey Daleo, Pat Ogden, Susie Todd, and Sharon Gartman.

Mr. Guinn directs the band in a concert.

BAND AT WORK

A special group, the stage band, has presented programs for assemblies and parties.

Throughout the year the Sam Rayburn band has had a major part in school life through entertaining concerts presented during assemblies. The band, which has progressed in all phases of music, has provided new, colorful, and entertaining half-time shows at all home football games and out-of-town events.

Band members represent Sam Rayburn in the rodeo parade.

STATESMAN: RECORD OF THE PAST

Working conscientiously to produce the 1965 yearbook is the Statesman staff. They strive to meet national standards and an even higher standard—student interest. The book is actually designed for one purpose—to capture the memorable days of the 1965 school year.

"Now, if I could just think of a cutline." Carolyn Stanley, Assistant Features Editor, and Penny Boggs, Features Editor.

"Stop doodling, Carolyn, and draw the layout!" Carolyn Cochran and Nancy Connevey, Ads Editors.

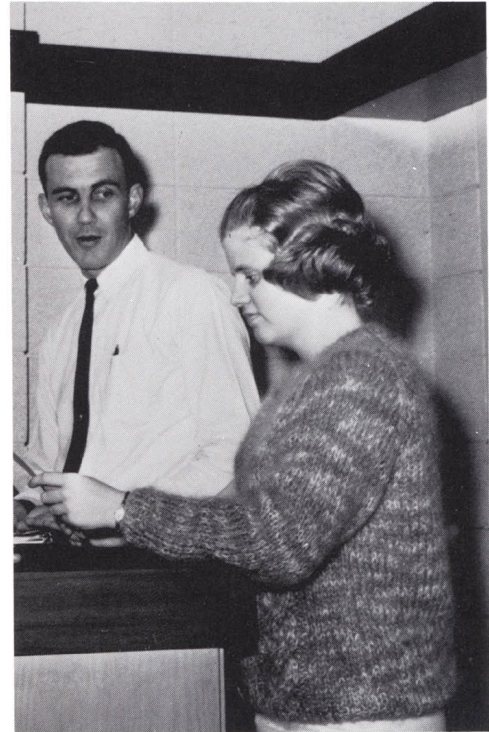

"What do you mean I'm one freshman short?" questions Ann Lomax. Sandra Congleton, Senior Editor; Ann Lomax, Freshman Editor; Linda Osteen, Sophomore Editor; Bonnie Ottinger, Junior Editor.

"Larry, what did you say you did with the negatives?" Photographers Rebecca Ellisor, Larry Pleasants, Chuck Wolff, and Glenn Keeling.

Mr. Fossati, sponsor, discusses plans with Diane McCoy, Faculty Editor.

"Ralph, you know we can't use that in the annual." Ralph Newlan, Art Editor, and Nancy O'Neal, Editor.

Staff members work toward a deadline. Pat Taylor, Clubs Editor; Judy Chastain, Secretary; Karen Adams, Assistant Clubs Editor; Sandra Smith, Business Manager.

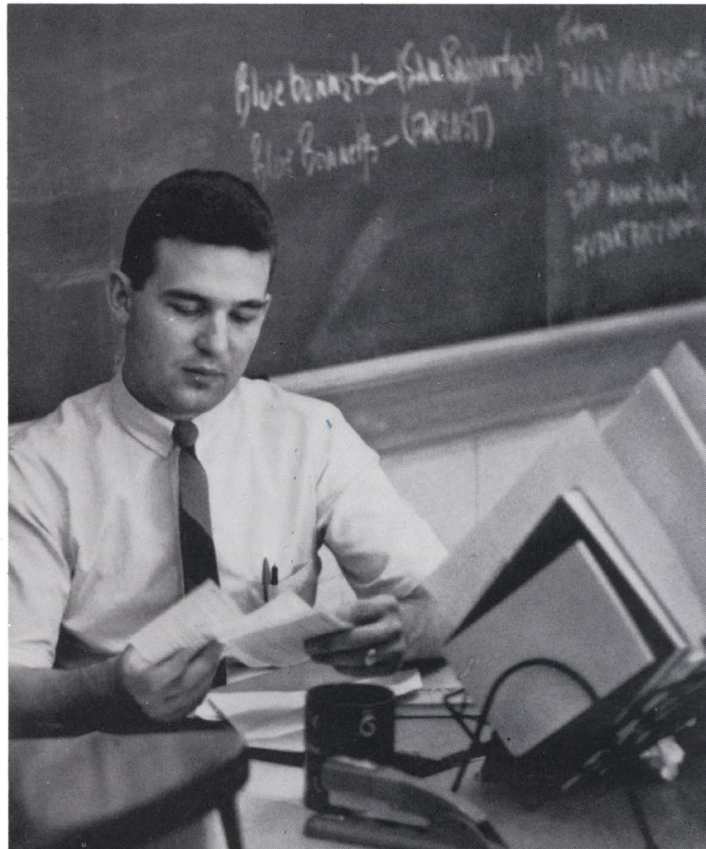

Members discuss various phases of journalism. They are Sandra Congleton, Paula Costolow, Diane Phillips, Nancy O'Neal, Zona Hogstrom, and Robert Heath.

An honorary journalistic organization, Quill and Scroll is for high school students who have completed one semester of journalism and who have a 3.5 grade average. Members are recognized for their outstanding work in journalism.

Mr. Hughes, sponsor, prepares for a Quill and Scroll meeting.

THE MAN BEHIND THE SCENE

Mr. Brooks teaches Kathy Burleson, Linda Ottinger, Richard Cobb, Debbie Daffin, and Lora Lea Lomax how to operate the overhead projector.

"Testing, one-two-three . . ." This is a familiar phrase for the members of the Visual Aids Club. This club trains students to operate school equipment and to work as teachers' aids. The members are responsible for audio-visual equipment, sound equipment, and lighting facilities. Their services promote the efficiency of our new school.

Members take care of club business. They are Linda Ottinger, Billye Baugh, Richard Cobb, Bob Sanford, Mark Fischer, and Brenda Bennett.

EXPLORATION IN THE YEARS AHEAD

The members of the Slide Rule Club learn the fundamental and practical uses of the slide rule in trigonometry, chemistry, physics, and math. Both faculty and members of the club hope in the future to develop a regular class from this club.

"I calculate that this slide rule is off one-tenth of an inch," comments Sam Ogelby to Cathleen Collins and Bill Singleton, all slide rule officers.

Brad Williams, Maurice Stokes, and Doug Renquist work to complete a difficult problem.

MATH — THE KEY TO THE FUTURE

Club officers include Linda Morrison, Larry Parker, Morris Carlson, and Sandra Hyatt.

"Oh, here's the mistake. Two plus two isn't three," Guy Dutcher explains to Larry Parker. Mr. Orr and Mrs. Collins, sponsors, look on.

The Sam Rayburn Number Squad learns that mathematics can be interesting and enjoyable. It finds that math can help its members not only in the business world, but also in their college preparation and in their personal lives.

THE MADRIGAL CHOIR

The Madrigal Choir is a special group selected from the A Cappella Choir as the best in the music department. Like the Madrigals of older times, who roamed the countryside singing, the Sam Rayburn Madrigals have had the opportunity to sing for many groups. Their activities have included singing for the First Pasadena State Bank, for the Lions and Optimist Clubs, for the T.S.T.A. and P.T.A., and for church services and assemblies. Being a member of the group is a privilege and an honor.

PRACTICE REWARDED

Candy Boyd and Sandy Brooks display awards won at contest before Mr. Wham.

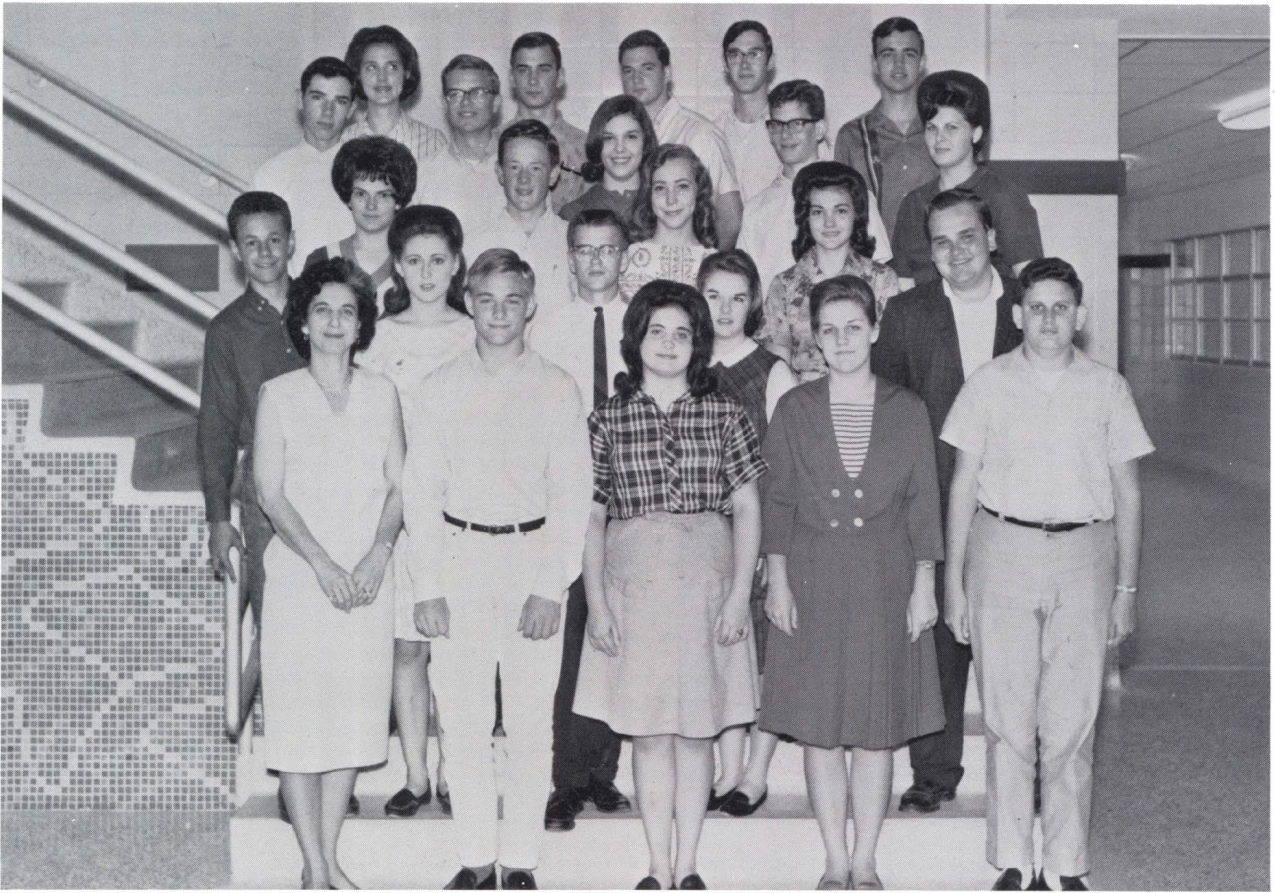

Sammy Halbert and Whitney Barnhart capture the audience in a performance of "Destry."

The choral department has had a very active and successful year. The choirs' activities have included entertainment at assemblies, several concerts, the Messiah contest, and the musical hit "Destry." Through the choral department, amateur vocalists cultivate an interest in and an appreciation for varied music fields through participation.

Choir members receiving awards are Jimmy Barker, Beau, Carolyn Fredregill, Sweetheart, Daryl Fagala and Pat Taylor, Most Outstanding Senior Girl and Boy.

SPEAK THAT WE MAY HEAR YOU

The Speech and Debate Club develops proficiency in speech. In its first year the club has sought to stimulate interest in speech by attending speech tournaments, providing speakers for service clubs in the community, and providing talent for school programs.

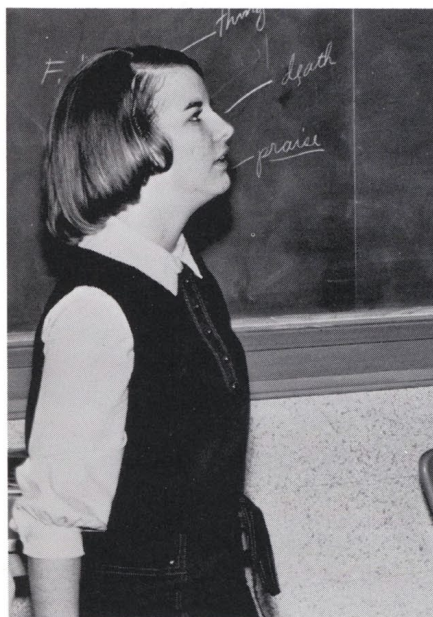

Learning to apply makeup is a part of speech activities.

"Oh, Roger," sighs Cyndy Chadwick to Roger Gay during an assembly performance.

Claire Hudson demonstrates a certain speech technique during class.

RAYBURN OFFERS EXPERIENCE FOR SPEECH STUDENTS

President Sam Ogleby discusses plans for the speech picnic with officers Jean McKown, Cyndy Silva, Helen Granberry, Cyndy Chadwick, and James Stockton.

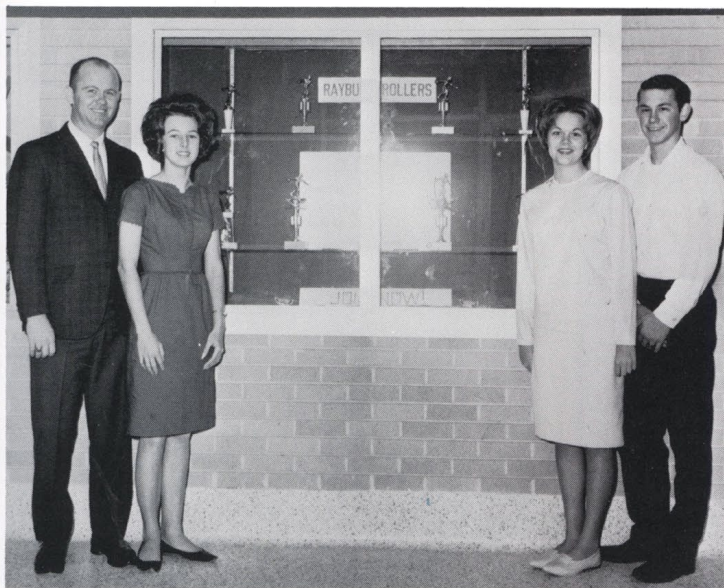

Trophy winners Gregg Norris, Lee Rothenburg, Mikki Black, Debbie Daffin, and Dennis Delafield display trophies after the special presentation.

The Rayburn Rollers have fun while they learn bowling techniques. Trophies are awarded to league members for outstanding work. Competition among friends encourages good sportsmanship and fair play.

RAYBURN ROLLERS "STRIKE" AGAIN

"This is only the twenty-fifth game we've lost," Douglas Horbelt comments optimistically to Dennis Delafield and Billye Ford.

Bowling Club officers: Karen Gray, Gerry Bowman, and Dennis Delafield. Sponsor: Mr. Pass.

Wrong lane, Gilbert!

Members show interest in F.T.A. by volunteering for various projects.

Miss Sandra Hooker installs F.T.A. officers, Sandy Hill, Jan Dickey, Melodie Turner, Judy Chastain, Kay Haas, Debbie White, Ellen Rae Hughes, and sponsors, Mrs. Flagg and Miss Cherry, in a special presentation before the members.

EDUCATION —

THE BRIDGE BETWEEN NATIONS

"Well, they said we could get refreshments," explain Shirley Wells, Linda Longbine, Karen Campbell, Mary Johnson, Dena Hamilton, Kerrie Carter, Brenda Bennett, and Danny Bruffy.

Sharon Gartman, Carla Matthys, Mary Johnson, Elaine Warinner, Dena Hamilton, Carmen Jones, Carolyn Voyles, and Elaine Riske sing carols during the December meeting.

FUTURE TEACHERS ARE EXPLORERS IN PROGRESS

F.T.A. members and sponsor include (Top left) Mary Grisham, Ronnie Williams, Phillip Driscoll, Timmie Bailey, David Ross, Art Lalumandier, Chris Floyd, John Henderson, James Bradberry, Louis Adams, Terry Mitchell, Kenny Rhinehart, Tommy Morrison, Ralph Newlan, Jean McKown, Jan McClendon, Paula Kirksey, Nancy Connevey, Calvin Maples, Judy Higgason, Jeannie Lewis, Ann Dutcher, Cindy Bodker, Carolyn Voyles, Melba Hunt, Kay Dickey, Jan Gibbons, Elaine Warriner, Jenine Kirksey, Sharon Barrett, Nancy Adams, Martha Peckinpaugh, Janice Hill, Jan Dickey, Glenda Adams, Judy Chastain, Sandy Hill, Shirley Milliken, Ellen Rae Hughes, Candy Harper, Donna Fagala, Laura Burnam, Linda Klocko, Linda Morrison, Vickie Higgason, Sandra Shows, Kathy Monroe, Vickie Porter, Renny Bodker, Brenda Bennett, Shirley Wells, Kay Adams, Sandra Smith, Sue Plack, Jo Palmer, Laura Davidson, Beverly Martin, Dena Hamilton, Donna Milton, Debbie Lawson, Carla Matthys, Mary Peckinpaugh, Karen Adams, Teresa Harrell, Jan Albritton, Kerrie Carter, Shelia Ellison, Debbie White, Peggy Kincannon, Suzanne Miles, Marilyn Dubberly, Karen Campbell, Joyce Rives, Cathy Cashman, Linda Pitre, Janelle Anders, Monica Autrey, Sharon Gartman, Lynn Tucker, Carolyn Cochran, Becky Ratliff, Mona Funke, Sammie Stevens, Mary Johnson, Carolyn Stanley, Melodie Turner, Mary Johnson, Sue Reedy, Vickie List, Candy Carter, Yvonne Demaret, Pat Abshire, Sigrid Kast, and Miss Cherry.

Sandy Hill presides over an F.T.A. meeting.

Sandra Smith, student teacher for a day, instructs her pupils in world geography.

The Future Teachers of America is organized to inspire its members and to teach them about the different phases of education. This year the club has participated in the district convention, state convention, and student teaching program. At the meetings various speakers have presented programs on all phases of teaching.

FTA SERVES SCHOOL

Members guide parents during National Education Week.

Y.F.C. PROMOTES CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP ON CAMPUS

Y.F.C. officers are Cheryl Tubbs, Ronnie Rich, Bill Brunner, Claudia Lindsey, Jerrie Chesney, and Annette Corder.

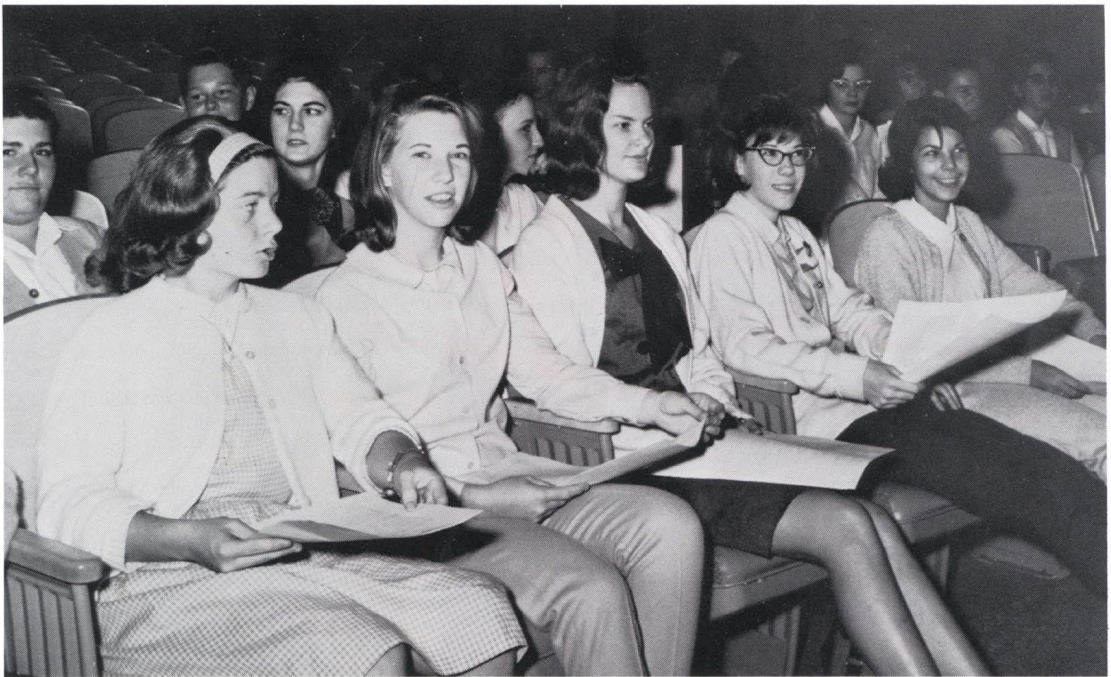

The Youth for Christ Club is a non-denominational organization open to all students who desire Christian fellowship. Guest speakers, musical programs, and personal testimonies play an important part in the club's activities. This organization is an active participant in the Youth for Christ of Greater Houston. The members have many opportunities to attend inspirational rallies and to encourage Christian attitudes in all phases of life on campus.

Special guest Lowell Mason presents a musical program for Y.F.C. members.

Members enjoy an inspirational meeting.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

French officers Carla Herman, Debbie Daffin, Ray Kopecky, Cheryl Tubbs, Larry Parker, Lynn Tucker, Debbie White, Susie Stein, and sponsor, Mrs. Steed, gather around a French travel poster.

Will Bradley, Larry Parker, Ray Kopecky, James George, Sammy Crowley, Cheryl Tubbs, Lynne Tucker, and Charles Gremminger all feel that all work and no play makes French a dull subject.

THE FRENCH CLUB

To create an interest in France and the French-speaking people is the purpose of the French Club. Slides and interesting speakers highlight the meetings.

This year the French Club sponsored the interclub basketball games, which improved relations between the clubs. The club members were entertained in December by a special French interpretation of Christmas.

SIN LIBERTAD LA

"Without liberty, life is worth nothing" is the motto of the Spanish Club. The purpose of the club is to promote better understanding of the people, customs, and language of Spanish-speaking countries. This year the club has sponsored an exchange program and has heard many interesting speakers, such as a Cuban refugee.

Glen Rush takes a hit at the piñata while Spanish club members prepare to dive for the candy, fruit, and toys. This activity is observed as a special treat at the Christmas Party.

VIDA VALE NADA

Brenda Bennett and Judy Douglas talk with Patricia Straffon, one of the exchange students from Mexico City.

Club members enjoy the spring picnic.

TALENT AND DREAMS COMBINE

Drama Club members and sponsor are Jan Cone, Cheryl Rogers, Mattie Rena Tittle, Glen Smith, Bill Scanlan, Mike Rhodes, Mark Whitman, Mike Jones, Gay Stripling, Vicky Porter, Ellen Greenwell, Karen McCleery, Jennifer Harris, Suzanne Battle, Brenda Shattles, Charlotte Moss, Janet Harris, Barbara Carpenter, Becky Ratliff, Claire Hudson, Kay Fitzpatrick, Barbara Terry, and Mrs. Satterwhite.

Increasing interest and participation in dramatic activities has been the goal of the Drama Club. Its members have had an opportunity to attend theatrical productions, plays, meets, and conferences. The club has taken an active part in school assemblies this year.

Officers Suzanne Battle, Barbara Carpenter, Mattie Rena Tittle, and Glen Smith discuss plans with Mrs. Satterwhite.

Mike Jones, Claire Hudson, and Daryl Fagala give a hilarious play for the Fine Arts Festival.

FOLKLORE

The John A. Lomax Folklore Club fosters the awareness of folklore as a living force in the community. Activities of the club include singing folk songs, collecting folklore, and learning more about folk songs and tales.

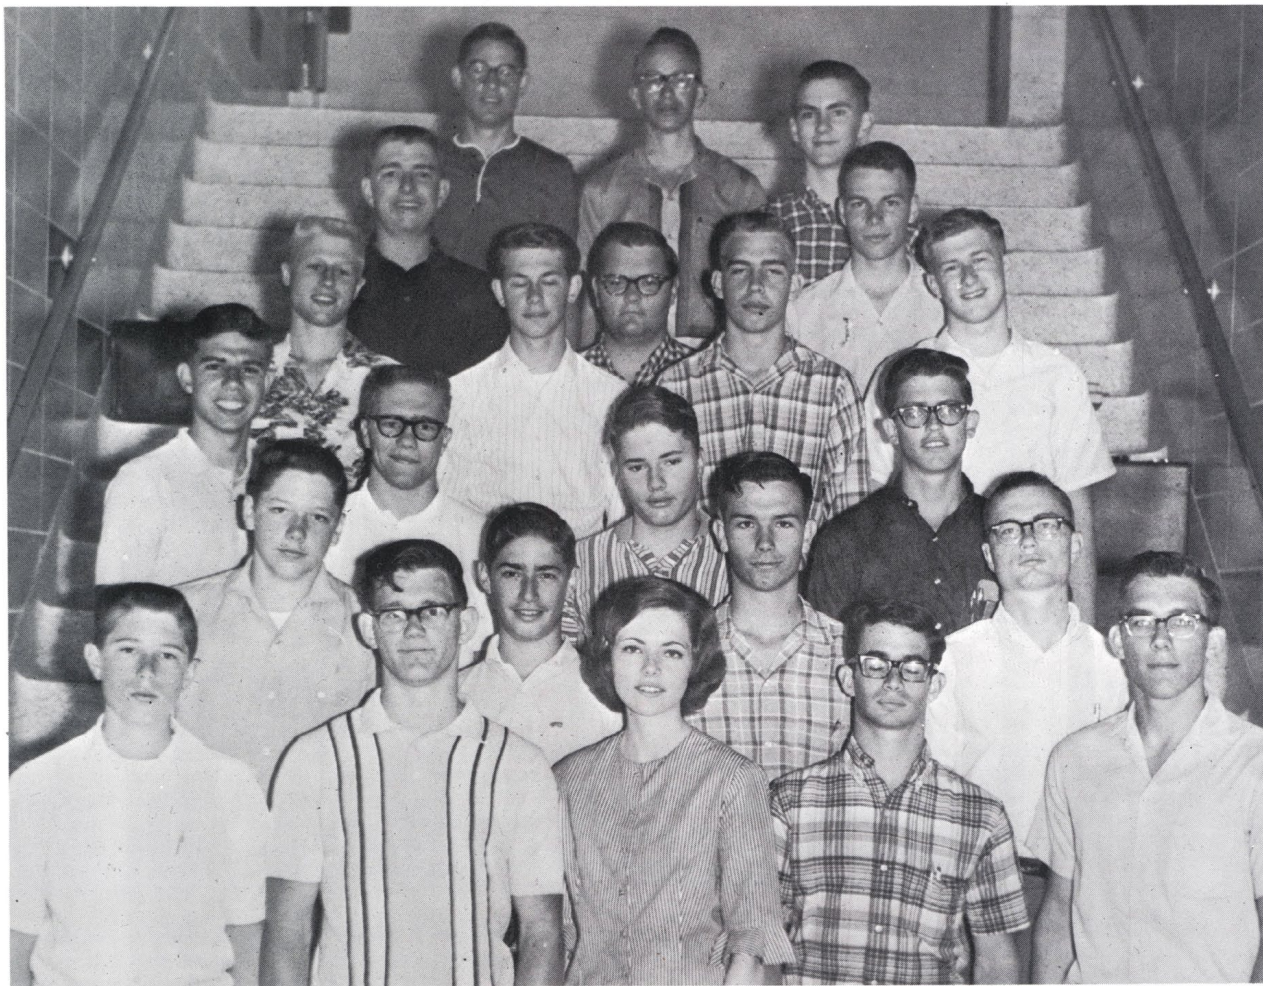

Mrs. Lyday, sponsor, strikes up a familiar tune, and members join in singing.

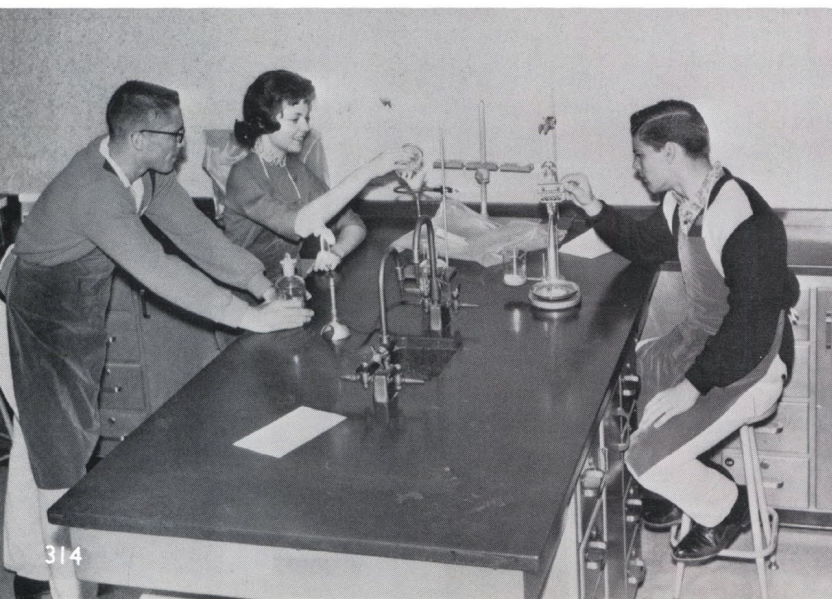

Folklore officers are Carol Hamilton, Ashton Taylor, Elaine Warinner, Phil Driscoll, Ruth Perez, Scooter George, and Carmen Jones.

AH-THE MYSTERIES OF SCIENCE

The Science Club, sponsored by all science teachers at Sam Rayburn, was organized for the advancement and education of tomorrow's scientists. The purpose of the club, to promote scientific understanding and to nurture interest in the sciences, has been developed by speakers, films, field trips, and projects.

They promised not to blow up the lab. Science club officers are Alan Barnes, Lela Grafton, and Kenneth Hogstrom.

BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY — MEDICAL CAREERS

Medical Careers members include (Top left) Gail Jessee, Jean McKown, Jim Back, Stephen Waller, Bill Schanlan, Larry Williams, Bill Singleton, Betty Page, Byron Davenport, Terrie Fernandez, Jackie Burkes, Joe Field, Ricky George, Jeff Costolow, Linda Taylor, Sherry Odom, Patty Thibeaux, Irma Crowley, Yvonne Montross, Linda Stampley, Debbie Caldwell, Brenda Shattles, Carole Nichols, Carol Perry, Linda Tate, Jimmy Lynn Warren, Pat Penny, Carol Hogstrom, Donnette Walker, Lynette Ferguson, and Connie Barlow.

The purpose of the Medical Careers Club, which provides opportunities for service in some medical organizations, is to promote knowledge and understanding of the aspects and opportunities present in the medical field. Among its activities have been the United Funds Drive, joint meetings with other high schools, field trips, and a hospital Easter basket project.

Sponsors Mrs. Good, Mrs. Kocian, Mrs. Geisenburg, and Mrs. Apple inspect Easter baskets made by members.

Medical Careers officers Yvonne Montross, Jean McKown, Erma Crowley, Carol Hogstrom, Pat Penny, Sherry Odom, and Debbie Caldwell seem to be able to handle their president, Stephen Waller.

Tri-Hi-Y members are (top left) Pam Perry, Glenda Adams, Cathy McCleery, Stepha Fuqua, Candy Boyd, Patty Ryan, Carolyn Woolsey, Johnette Hargrove, Pat Fitzgerald, Debbie White, Marilyn Shanks, Susan Lee, Suzanne Miles, Marilyn Dubberly, Jerri Taylor, Sue Reedy, Peggy Kincannon, Karen Campbell, Janet Cobb, Candy Carter, De Nita Logan, Vicki Listi, Jeannie Osburn, and Gay Hollinquist.

The goal of the Tri-Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community a way of Christian living. The club has sponsored an inter-club girls' volleyball tournament for improved relations among clubs.

Club officers Jerri Taylor, Janet Cobb, Stepha Fuqua, Cathy McCleery, Pam Perry, and Marilyn Dubberly talk with sponsor Miss Holub.

CHRISTIAN CHARACTER EXEMPLIFIED BY TRI-HI-Y

TO MAINTAIN A CHRISTIAN ATTITUDE

All members of the Hi-Y accept and believe in the national purpose—"To create, maintain, and extend through the home, school, and community high standards of Christian living." The members, who frequently use the YMCA gym for their meetings, exemplify Christian character in school.

Hi-Y officers Gary Kasper, Jim Rankin, Jim Cameron, Jim Kasper, and John Hinkle receive the club charter from Mr. Ghormley.

Jim Rankin and Gary Kasper take books that they collected during the Hi-Y book drive into the library.

EARN AND LEARN IN D.E.

The members of Distributive Education, whose aim is to make their community a better place in which to live, are trained for useful employment and leadership. The D.E. Club, which presented the guard for the seal as a gift to Sam Rayburn, attended the state convention and presented a Talent Show and a Fashion Show for the school.

Robert Keathley, Larry Priest, and Steve Stroud demonstrate their selling skills.

The D.E. Fashion Show was a highlight of the school year.

The D.E. officers, Jim Palmer, Keith Bodine, Darrell Owens, Marsha Morton, Stepha Fuqua, Jo Nell Daniels, and Robbie Hill, wear their D.E. jackets proudly.

Steve Barron, Trudy Estes, Bryant Krenek, Marsha Morton, Rachel Holder, and Robbie Hill enjoy refreshments at the D.E. Christmas party.

Billy Morehead, Mikki Black, Marsha Morton, Carrie Fajkus, Stepha Fuqua, Ronnie Pearson, Jim Palmer, Rachel Holder, Robbie Hill, and Bill Brunner find banking a new experience.

Don Smith seems to have something to say, but Sally Ipson is too busy at the moment to listen.

Mr. Pass discusses a project in class with D.E. students Gerald Bowers, Kathy Daniels, and Patsy Green.

D.E. students take time from their jobs for refreshments. They are Janis Stroud, Darrell Owens, Vivian Liste, Ann Aubin, and Roy Turner.

Jo Nell Daniels, Mikki Black, Robert Keathley, Trudy Estes, Steve Stroud, Gerald Bowers, and Larry Priest pause for a break from their busy schedules.

EXPERIENCE PRECEDES SUCCESS

V-I-C-T-O-R-Y

Members add spirit to the "Beat Pasadena" pep rally. Art club members are entertained at the Christmas party held jointly with South Houston.

LIFE GLOWS IN THE ARTIST'S EYES

This year the Art Club has developed in its members an informative and enjoyable promotion of artistic interests. The club, which has been responsible for the sets for various plays, has enjoyed a Christmas party, the art fair, museum trips, and special speakers.

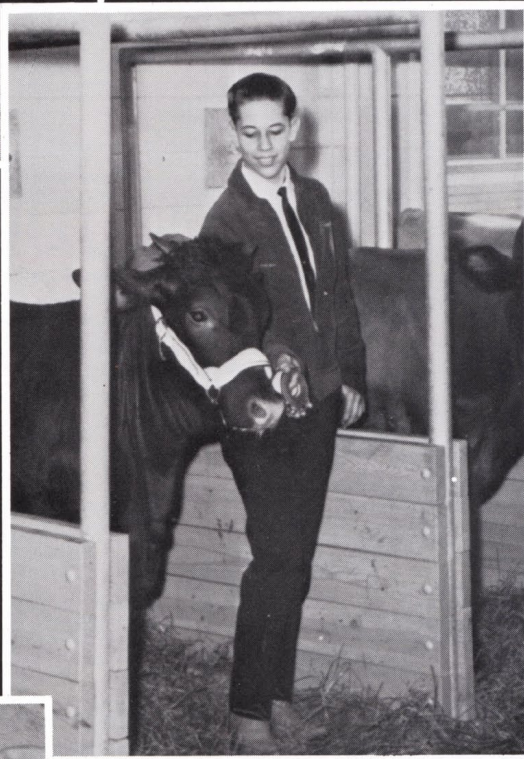

Art club officers Diana Der Bing, Carol Hamon, Linda Marshall, Carol Hamilton, Nancy Wyatt, and Patty Shipp inspect the animals used for the Fine Arts Festival.

Tap, tap tap. Ted Arbor, Gary Ridgeway and Ronnie Wood work in the F.F.A. shop.

Lloyd Williams and John (the cow) make a striking team.

A flour rub does wonders for the face. Fred Bailey initiates Steve Hamm into F.F.A.
